

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

THE LOVE & LAUGHTER TOUR KICKED OFF NATIONAL RUN WITH A BANG AT IMPACT CHURCH PLAYING TO A CAPACITY AUDIENCE DELIVERING HUGE LAUGHS

Jacksonville, Florida - April 4, 2024 - The Love & Laughter Tour kicked off its nationwide run with resounding success at Impact Church in Jacksonville, Florida, leaving audiences roaring with laughter. Host Pastors Bishop George Davis and Pastor April Davis warmly welcomed the tour in a grand fashion, setting the stage for an unforgettable evening of comedy.

The capacity crowd was treated to an exceptional lineup of comedic talent, featuring Akintunde, Tony Tone, Corie Johnson, and special guest Jacksonville's own Nick Harvey. From start to finish, the show was a whirlwind of hilarious stand up comedy with each comedian delivering amazing performances that had the audience bent over with laughter. "Every comedian was hilarious, appropriate, and left our church basking in the Joy of the Lord," said Bishop George Davis.

"Impact Church was the perfect host ministry to kick-off The Love & Laughter Tour," said tour headliner, Akintunde. "Laughter is a universal language that truly ministers to people, and tonight was a testament to the power of partnership between ministry, media, and entertainment."

Next on the tour's itinerary are stops in Lynchburg, Virginia, Manning, South Carolina, and Atlanta, Georgia, with additional dates being added in Detroit, Michigan, Macon, Georgia, and beyond. The Love & Laughter Tour is quickly gaining momentum as one of the fastest-growing national tours, captivating audiences with its unique blend of humor and heart.

"We are proud to produce The Love & Laughter Tour," said lead agent and WF Media Group co-founder, Eunissa Warnock. "It's been incredible to see the enthusiastic response from audiences across the country as we spread joy and laughter one city at a time."
